CLIENT IRD CONSENT FORM

IRD Number

Date of Birth...../...../.....

Due to the provisions of the Privacy Act (1993) and the Tax Administration Act (1994), tax agents require signed authority from clients before they are able to communicate with Inland Revenue on their behalf. This includes linking you up for all tax types, filing tax returns and dealing with general IRD enquiries. Therefore all clients must provide this authority before we can act for them.

I/We authorize Advantage Mint Accounts Limited to obtain information from Inland Revenue on all current and future tax types. Information can be obtained by phone, internet, fax and e-services.

I/We give authority for credits to be credited to Advantage-Mint Accounts Trust account.

This authority also includes obtaining information from other Government departments, ACC and financial institutions in order to complete the financial statements.
